

Shaindy and the Last Slide

Cut out the 4 cards. Glue or tape them in the boxes in the order they happened. Say the story out loud.

Her tummy feels tight, and Mommy stays close.

Mommy says, "Two more turns, then we go home."

Shaindy waves bye to the slide and holds Mommy's hand.

Shaindy takes her last turn: whoosh!

Grownup tip

Read each card aloud. Let your child choose the order and say the story in their own words. Passing or pointing is always fine.

Shaindy and the Last Slide

Cut out the cards. Read each one with a grownup. Sort them into the two boxes. There is no wrong answer. Today's answer can be different from tomorrow's.

Hold Mommy's hand

Walk beside Mommy

Wave bye to the slide

Say "I feel sad"

Hold up two fingers

Shaindy and the Last Slide

Play with a grownup. Use a small token. Flip a coin: heads move 2 spaces, tails move 1. Say what the space says, then try it if you want to.

Teal spaces:

- 3 Count the turns
- 6 Feel the tight tummy
- 9 Pick a hand or walk

Tool for this book: Two turns, then a hand

Grownup tip

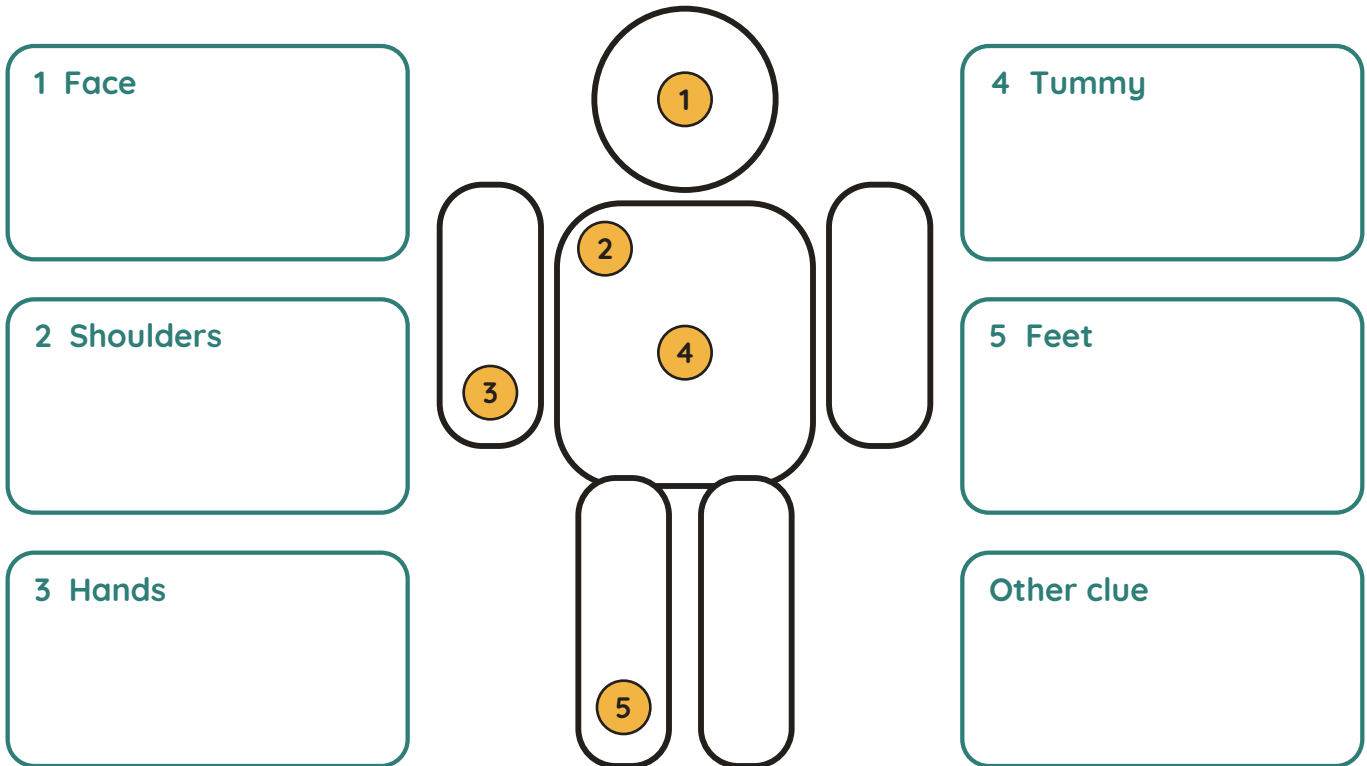

Say one activity ends after two turns and name the next one. Offer a hand or walking beside you. Your child may dislike stopping; no reward for hiding sadness.

Shaindy and the Last Slide

Color or draw what you notice in each place. You can point, scribble or skip. A clue is not an answer.

Story clue: Shaindy's tummy felt tight. Her feet wanted to stay.

Grownup: ask "What do you notice?" and "What might help?" Do not tell your child what they feel. Passing is always fine.

Shaindy and the Last Slide

Draw “what finishes” and “what comes next,” with a helper in the middle.

Grownup tip

Listen before suggesting. Your child may point, draw or pass. There is no right picture and no need to share a private feeling.

Cut on the solid line (grownup). Print at actual size. No sticker needs to be earned.

Goodbye to the slide. Color any way you like. Add something of your own.

Find the 4 words. They go left to right. A grownup can read the words. You can point or pass.
