

Activity 1

A grown-up shows a safe coat laid flat. Point to it, say a word or watch.

Activity 2

Is Benny's coat open at the start? A grown-up reads the first paragraph again.

Activity 3

What does Benny say when he wants help? Copy the word or raise a hand if you want.

Activity 4

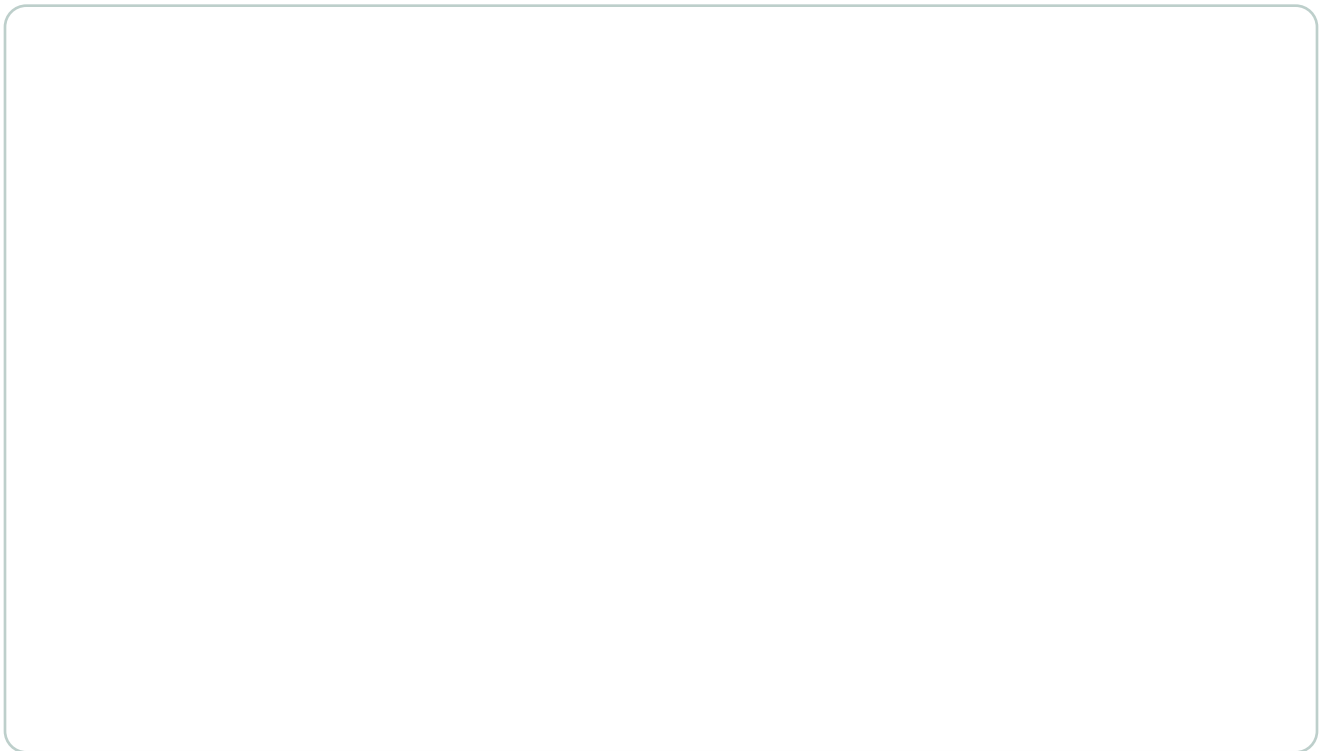

Who helps Benny? Say a word or listen.

Activity 5

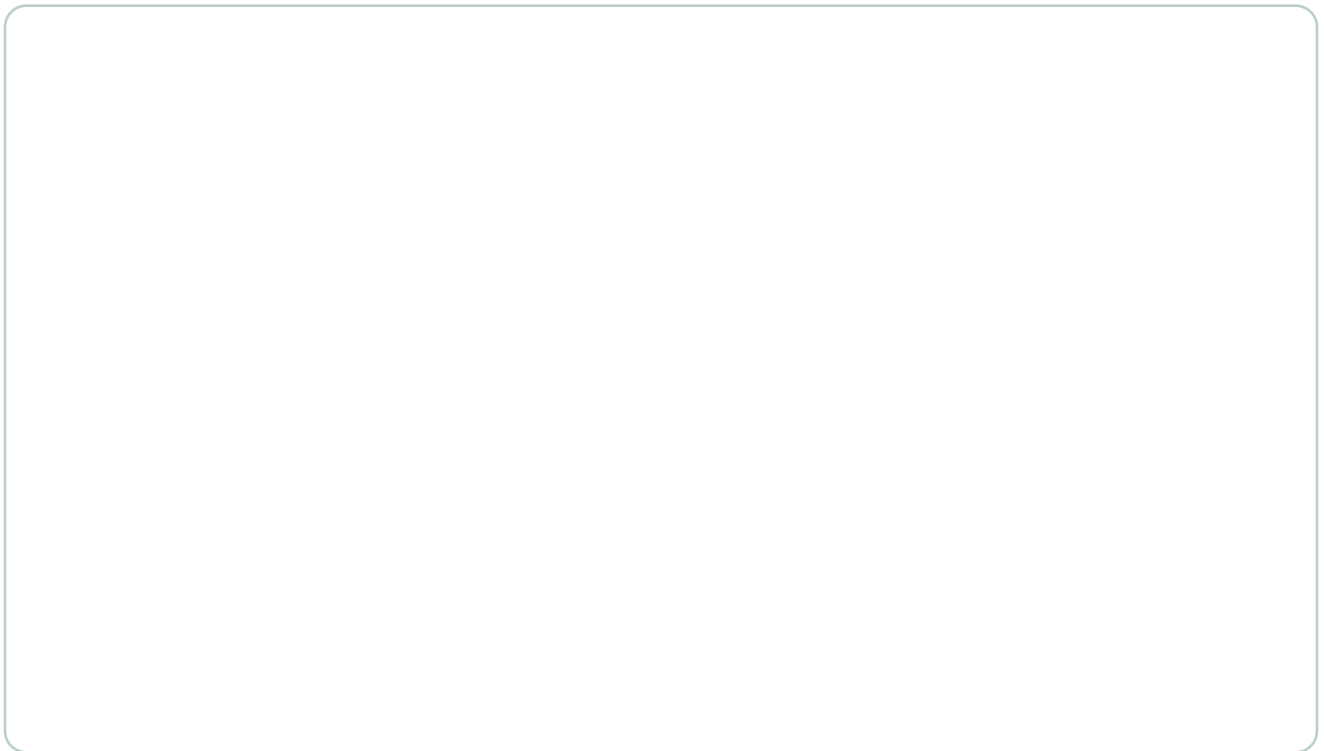

With a grown-up, point to the bottom of the coat. You may watch instead.

Activity 6

A grown-up opens and closes a coat while you watch.

Activity 7

A grown-up offers: "Watch or help?" Choose by a word, gesture or staying nearby.

Activity 8

A grown-up reads the last paragraph again. What goes on after the coat?

Grown-up notes and answers

1. Coat. Use no loose small parts; listening is enough.
2. Yes, open. Adult may model the answer without requiring speech.
3. Help. Any comfortable signal or listening is enough.
4. Mommy.
5. Adult names bottom; no manipulation of tiny zipper parts.
6. Adult handles zipper away from skin and fingers; do not force a caught pull.
7. Any comfortable choice; no demand to fasten independently.
8. His hat. Listening to the answer is enough.

