Answers for the grown-up

1. Soup story order: Listed order 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.
2. Point and name: Open. POINT to each: pot, spoon, carrot, Teddy.
3. Puff or yum?: PUFF: Rafi pretends to blow. YUM: Rafi rubs his tummy. The toy soup is not hot.
4. Color a red pot: Open. Coloring or pointing is enough; no drawing skill is required.
5. Say it together: Open. SAY each: puff, puff, puff; round and round; yum.
6. Find the red: Open. Point to the safe red and round objects the grown-up shows. Touching is optional, as the instructions allow.
7. Share words: Open. No result is promised.
8. Talk and stir: The child can pretend to stir. Teddy and Mommy get a turn.

Read together

Read aloud and pretend to stir together. Use large age-appropriate play pieces with a grown-up beside the child. Keep toy food out of mouths. Let the child point, stir or say a word. A grown-up handles stickers.
