1 Remember the story

Answer in your own words. Look back at the story if you want.

1 Why was Chani wrapping the vase?

2 What did she and Mama agree about that evening?

3 What limit did Chani tell Deena the next day?

2 Fact or guess

Read each sentence. Circle Fact if the story shows it for sure.
Circle Guess if it is only an idea someone has.

- | | | | |

| 5 | Chani chose not to arrange more home visits for now. | Fact | Guess |
| 6 | The vase later held paper flowers. | Fact | Guess |

Write one fact and one guess from your own day.

3 Think and write

Write what is true for you, or write about a made-up person. You do not have to share anything private.

- 1 Write about a fictional character delaying a lasting decision during a sharp feeling, without denying what upset them.

- 2 Write an invented sentence about a specific hurt and a practical limit, without labels or imagined motives.

- 3 Describe why a pause is different from a promise to continue an arrangement forever.

- 3 "Waiting gives me room to choose. It doesn't remove my right to keep a limit."

7 My chart

Use Chani's canceled visit. This is not advice to delay getting help for danger or repeated serious harm. A trusted grownup can help with those situations immediately.

Immediate urge in the story	What it would communicate	A pause with support	Deliberate choice later

8 Draw it

Draw the wrapped box, ribbon, two-option scrap paper, and vase with paper flowers. Caption the overnight pause and later choice. No people needed.

Remember the story

To return Deena's gift after the canceled visit. No package would leave that evening. No more home-visit plans for now.
