

1 Remember the story

Answer in your own words. Look back at the story if you want.

1 Why was Suri home on Tuesday?

2 What extra condition had she put on resting?

3 How did the class cover the display headings?

2 Fact or guess

Read each sentence. Circle Fact if the story shows it for sure.
Circle Guess if it is only an idea someone has.

- | | | | |
|---|--|------|-------|
| 1 | The doctor advised another quiet day at home. | Fact | Guess |
| 2 | Suri's class no longer wanted her there. | Fact | Guess |
| 3 | Working on vocabulary left Suri tired. | Fact | Guess |
| 4 | Suri finished every word on the list that day. | Fact | Guess |
| 5 | Two girls shared the headings. | Fact | Guess |
| 6 | Mama followed the doctor's advice about returning. | Fact | Guess |

Write one fact and one guess from your own day.

3 Think and write

Write what is true for you, or write about a made-up person. You do not have to share anything private.

- 1 Write about a made-up character accepting a recovery plan without turning rest into another work schedule.

- 2 Describe the difference between covering a person's particular job and replacing the person.

- 3 Write an invented sentence that tells a caregiver honestly how a character feels. Do not give medical advice.

6 Say it out loud

Practice these out loud, or whisper them. Then write what you would say in your own words.

- 1 "I can follow the recovery plan without earning my rest first."

- 2 "Someone can cover my job without taking my place as a person."

- 3 "I'll tell my caregiver how I feel rather than hide it."

7 My chart

Use Suri’s fictional situation. This is not a health plan or medical advice. Follow a caregiver’s and qualified clinician’s guidance when ill.

Plan from caregiver or doctor	A job someone else can cover	Quiet choice allowed by the plan	Feeling to tell the caregiver

8 Draw it

Draw the yellow basket, the folded teacher's note, the storybook, and the completed class headings. Caption what waited and what others covered. No people needed.
