Rafi has a little cup. Mommy has a little jug.
There is cool water in the jug. The cup sits on a tray.

"My turn," says Rafi. Mommy puts a little water in the jug. Rafi tips it. Pour, pour. Water runs over the cup. The tray catches it.

"Help me stop," says Rafi. Mommy helps him lift the jug. Rafi puts it down. Together, they wipe the tray.

Mommy puts less water in the jug. Rafi tips it again. "Stop," he says. Mommy helps him lift it. A little water stays in the cup. Rafi sets the jug down.
